

Clarence W. "Shorty" Jenkins (1935 – 2013), known as the "King of Swing," revolutionized curling with his innovative ice-making techniques.

Famous for his pink cowboy attire, Shorty introduced the practice of timing rocks, which transformed the sport. His dedication earned him a posthumous induction into the World Curling Hall of Fame in 2018 as a 'builder.' Shorty's legacy lives on through the many ice technicians he mentored and the clubs he improved, leaving a lasting impact on the game. 🏈

FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

A warm welcome curlers, spectators and organizers to the 2025 AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic. The 26th edition of this event!

This year we are welcoming participants from across the globe including teams from Canada, USA, Korea, Scotland, Germany, Japan, China, Sweden, and Switzerland.

I would like to personally thank John DiLabio and Kevin Baker the co-chairs of the 2025 Shorty. Special thanks to Denis Cordick, VP Marketing for AMJ, Jet Ice, Cogeco, Dairy Queen Grill & Chill, Desjardins, and The City of Cornwall for their support and to the corporate and team sponsors. Without you, we could not offer such an outstanding event.

My gratitude goes out to the Cornwall Curling Center, and the many volunteers who have given their time in so many capacities - your help and commitment in assisting the committee in delivering a successful bonspiel is nothing short of stellar. More than 100 volunteers work tirelessly throughout this weekend to ensure everything runs smoothly.

And to my organizing committee - a bonspiel of this magnitude cannot happen without the tremendous support of a strong committee. I am very fortunate to have a volunteer machine in Cornwall - it is clear how much everyone believes in this event. Please take a moment this weekend to thank them for their dedicated support in pulling this off, it is incredible.

We recently lost one of our lead volunteers of this event - France Rioux - to cancer and our entire committee is struck with grief. France was the face that greeted athletes and made sure everyone was comfortable and enjoying themselves. She embodied everything we love about curling and this event will not be the same without her.

Good curling,
Gord

TITLE SPONSOR'S MESSAGE

AMJ is proud to be the Official Moving Company of the CCA and the Season of Champions, the Pinty's Grand Slam events, and the Stu Sells Series.

We are especially proud to be the Title Sponsor of the AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic. We have had a very long history of supporting curling and curlers across Canada and love to support this great sport.

We want to thank the Cornwall Curling Center for hosting The Shorty.

We also want to thank all of the fans who will come out to cheer on their favourite teams this weekend and the players who come to this great event year after year.

Most of all AMJ wants to express our sincere thanks to Gord McCrady and his committee for all of their hard work year after year and for allowing us to get involved many years ago and to become the Title Sponsor of the Shorty.

MAYOR'S WELCOME

On behalf of City Council and the City of Cornwall, it is my pleasure to warmly welcome you to Cornwall for the 26th Edition of the AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic.

As a community we are very pleased to be hosting you and I invite you to take the opportunity during your time with us to explore what Cornwall has to offer. Whether you visit our impressive waterfront, beautiful parks, or explore our various restaurants and shops, you will find something unique offered at each stop.

Curling has a long history in Cornwall, having been first recorded in our region being played on the frozen St. Lawrence River in the 1850s. A century and a half later, you are continuing this tradition at the Cornwall Curling Centre, on the banks of the St. Lawrence.

The City of Cornwall is proud to be a part of this event as a corporate sponsor, showcasing our community to the world, and allowing attendees to see our city as we see it; as the Heart of the Seaway.

In closing, I would like to take the opportunity to acknowledge all those who are involved with bringing this bonspiel to fruition. It is no easy feat and for that, you have our thanks and congratulations.

Wishing you all the best with the bonspiel.

Sincerely,
Justin Towndale
Mayor

CCC PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

On behalf of the Cornwall Curling Centre Board of Directors, members, and staff, I am pleased to welcome you to the 2025 AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic.

We are truly grateful for your support of this prestigious event. Your continued contributions allow us to showcase world-class curling talent from across Canada, the United States, Europe, and Asia, right here in Cornwall.

This year, we also take a moment to honour and remember France Rioux, a longtime volunteer and cherished member of the Shorty Jenkins Classic family. France's bright smile, contagious laugh, and unwavering dedication left a lasting impact on everyone involved with this event. Her spirit will live on in the heart of this tournament and in the memories we share.

I would like to extend heartfelt thanks to our incredible volunteers, whose countless hours of hard work and enthusiasm are the foundation of this event's success. The Board of Directors also wishes to acknowledge and thank our major sponsors for their continued generosity: AMJ, the City of Cornwall, Cogeco, Dairy Queen Grill & Chill, Desjardins and Jet Ice.

The Cornwall Curling Centre is proud to host the AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic for the seventh time. With a curling tradition that spans 141 years, we are honoured to share our rich history, world-class facility, and vibrant community with you.

The AMJ Shorty Jenkins Classic is more than just a competition. It is a celebration of curling excellence, community spirit, and camaraderie. We wish all participants a memorable week, filled with great shots, great sportsmanship, and even better memories.

In remembrance of Shorty Jenkins, the man in pink, may everyone enjoy a spectacular week of curling.

Sincerely,

Pamela Lalonde
President
